- $15.00/person, cash only please, smaller bills
  - Includes coffee, juice, water. breakfast food and tax.
  - Tip bucket is available at the beginning of the buffet line. Please be generous as they do an outstanding job of serving us. Thank you.

Upon arrival:

1. Near the entrance, purchase your breakfast ticket(s). Ticket is in the form of a poker chip. Don't lose it or bet with it. We use it to track # of attendees later. Ticket Sale Volunteers: TBD
2. Move into the bar area where the greeter, Rosie Harmsen, will hand you an agenda.
3. Check out the book & puzzles opposite the bar area (take and leave one at your pleasure)
4. Move down the walkway and sign-up for the next breakfast (See Jill Griffith-McRaith)
5. Stop and get a name tag (previous attendees please bring your name tags from previous year) NEED A VOLUNTEER
6. Move into the dining area and find old or new friends to sit with. Remember to welcome newbies as we don't want newcomers to feel unwelcome.
7. Go get coffee and/or juice & water and mingle around until we announce that the buffet will begin (located at the far window wall behind the teal wall)
8. Purchase your 50/50 raffle ticket(s)-see Jeff Parker or his helper(s) Keith McCarthy) Look for the guys/gals with the sand pails.
9. Once seated at your table look for your table color located on the table and wait to get in line until your color is called. Bring your poker chip with you to the buffet line and drop it in the basket with John Swanson.
10. The buffet line starts at the beginning of the "teal wall" and exits at the window wall. One-way only. After all tables are called up to the buffet line, we will offer 2nd helpings if there are leftovers. All unused food is donated to local fire department crews.
11. Announcements will be made while you are dining. The 50/50 drawing concludes the breakfast.
12. Unless we have a scheduled speaker you should be out by 9:00-9:15 latest
13. Jot down things you would like covered at breakfasts and we'll try to incorporate your ideas in future dates. Hand them to me at the walkway. I'm always looking for good jokes to tell as well.
14. Don't forget to thank the many volunteers who make this weekly event happen!
